

International Business.

Manry Rawls can arrange a complete worldwide program of risk management consulting and insurance brokerage services.

The combination of in-house international resources and our access to international resources provides you with the benefits of:

- Depth of expertise in international program design and implementation
- Product and environmental liability assessment and consulting
- Highly protected risk engineering capability

Manry Rawls Commercial Insurance Consultants work together with you and with other industry experts to assure seamless quality service to your worldwide risk management and insurance program.

Coverage you may need if you Export Merchandise or Services:

- International general liability covering claims brought overseas
- Foreign voluntary workers compensation
- Non-owned or hired automobile
- International excess/umbrella
- International Property / Transportation
- Transit (air and inland shipments)
- Salespersons' samples / property on exhibit abroad
- Ocean cargo

Coverages you may need if you Import Merchandise or Services:

- Contingent business interruption, extra expense for contributing exposures.
- Foreign voluntary workers compensation
- Automobiles DIC / excess
- International general liability
- International property / inland marine
- Transit (air and inland shipments)

Coverages you may need if your business Manufactures Overseas:

- Property insurance
- Business interruption with political upset
- Interdependent business interruption (for subsidiaries)
- Transit (air and inland shipments)
- Fidelity / crime
- Political risk (civil war, confiscation, expropriation)
- Expatriate personal insurance
- International general liability
- Foreign voluntary workers compensation
- Automobiles DIC / excess
- International excess/umbrella
- Employee Benefits

We deliver the solutions that give our clients a true competitive advantage. We make your international business feel at Home with Manry Rawls as well as abroad.